INNOVATIVE HOME-BASED ONLINE TRAVEL AGENT OPPORTUNITIES - PROGRAM EXPANDING GLOBALLY

PROVIDENCE, RI (May 26, 2010) – For those looking for additional income while working in the comfort of their own homes, CruisingFree.com is expanding its sales team to include additional home-based agents to specialize in all types of cruise travel, with particular emphasis on ultra-luxury cruises, river cruise and unique (soft adventure) cruise vacations. Travel professionals interested in this innovative opportunity will be selling cruise travel on a full- or part-time basis.

“This is a wonderful income-generating opportunity for folks all around the world. Working in the travel industry is possibly the best career in the world, offering freedom, educational support and unlimited income potential,” says Steven Gelfuso, President of Cruise Brothers.

Consumers and travel agents, with and without experience, who opt to affiliate with Cruise Brothers home-based travel agent site, CruisingFree, may take advantage of the agency’s experience in selling cruises, the support it provides, and the familiarization trips and top commissions available because of the volume it sells. Gelfuso prides himself on the educational support Cruise Brothers offers. “We know how to sell cruises. We have been doing it since 1972, and that is why MSNBC ranks us in “The Top 15 Web Brokers”.

Gelfuso holds weekly Web sessions for the agents who actively sell through Cruise Brothers. He’s proud that he’s immediately accessible to these independent contractors—they have his cell phone number and email address. “Once a travel professional is involved with us, they can call me or have direct access to my Vice President – Sales & Marketing, Gloria Rocatelli,” he says.

Whether it’s running promotions on the Travel Channel and Food Network, or holding consumer shows such as a weekend event that attracted 7,000 attendees, Cruise Brothers marketing can pay off to these home-based agents. Cruise Brothers offers commission and the fees are minimal. The fees get new agents started and set up with their own travel website. This program does not charge an annual membership fee.

In spite of the tough but improving economic times, CruisingFree provides a great legitimate way to earn an income and enjoy travel at the same time. Whether out of necessity or desire, this free-lance work is geared for Internet entrepreneurs who want to make as much as they can based on availability and willingness to work.

For more information about this unique opportunity, call David Accetturo, Director of Business Development at 800. 827.7779 extension 4801, or visit the website at CruisingFree.com
